

Large unwanted items now available to book direct through Streetwise

Residents can now make bookings for large unwanted items direct through our partners Streetwise on their new website.

The existing channel on our website continues for this service too.

Collections are normally made on Saturdays and residents can choose a suitable date when enquiring.