

You need photo ID to vote at a polling station

Our Elections team are now spreading the message on new requirements from this May's elections onwards where voters will require photo ID if voting at a polling station.

If you vote at a polling station, you may already have a form of photo ID that is acceptable. You can use any of the following:

- Passport
- Driving licence (including provisional license)
- Blue badge
- Certain concessionary travel cards
- Identity card with PASS mark (Proof of Age Standards Scheme)
- Biometric Immigration document
- Defence identity card
- Certain national identity cards

For more information on which forms of photo ID will be accepted, visit electoralcommission.org.uk/voterID or call their helpline on 0800 328 0280.

You Now Need Phot ID to Vote at a Polling Station

If you don't already have an accepted form of photo ID, or you're not sure whether your photo ID still looks like you, you can apply for a free voter ID document, known as a Voter Authority Certificate. You can apply for this from next Monday at voter-authority-certificate.service.gov.uk
